City of Rockville Arts (Anne):

- Artist Dina Fisher will visit Lincoln Park in late January 2026.
  - A community workshop will be held either Saturday, January 24 or 31st from 11am-1:30pm.
    - During the workshop, Fisher will present the art design and confirm with Lincoln Park residents which words should be engraved on one of the statues, and which values should be included in the "icon tower."
    - Fisher would like current residents to contribute their handprints for the new artwork.
    - Fisher would also like a group of three to five Lincoln Park residents to work with her as a committee to confirm that her design is on the right track. The committee would also help engage residents to participate in the project.
  - Fisher will do individual, in-person interviews with current Lincoln Park residents during the January visit. If residents would like to be interviewed, please let me know.
- It would be helpful if updates can be shared on LPCA's website and I can provide the confirmed dates, times, and text. Please let me know if it's possible for project updates to be shared on LPCA's website.
